

Add the elegance of live music to your wedding or special event.

Whether your wedding is formal or informal, a huge party or an intimate gathering, soprano Andrea Veal can make your event just what you want it to be: distinctly individual.

Give yourself and your guests the gift of beautiful, tasteful music during your ceremony.

The Wedding Song Package includes...

...A private consultation by phone, e-mail, or in person at Andrea's office to help you choose the best music for your ceremony.

...A list of songs in Andrea's library appropriate for weddings. You will have access to songs in a variety of styles, including classical, sacred, jazz, folk, and musical theatre.

...Twenty minutes of prelude music as your guests are seated, music for the processional and recessional, special music, and ten minutes of postlude music as your guests exit.

...Set-up of sound equipment for events requiring amplification.

...Collaboration with your pianist or organist if you have hired one, or use of pre-recorded accompaniment CDs if you do not plan on hiring a pianist.

For an additional charge, Andrea can...

...Sing at your wedding rehearsal.

...Order specially-requested music not in her library.

...Sing at your cocktail hour and/or reception.

Artist Biography

Soprano Andrea Veal received an MA and BA in music from the University of New Hampshire. In 2002, she received first prize at the annual vocal competition held by NH NATS. She has performed solo roles with the Seacoast Choral Society, Melopeo, and The Hampshire Consort. Ms. Veal is a member of Boston's Handel and Haydn Society.

As a recitalist, Ms. Veal is known for her ability to connect emotionally with her audience. Her most recent recitals have been "The Tradition of the Spiritual" and "Songs in English: Old and New."

Ms. Veal is a prominent lecturer and instructor in the Seacoast area. She is the director of the Andrea Veal Voice Studio in Rochester, NH, and teaches privately at MusicalArts in Exeter, NH and at the Concord Community Music School.